*To our Alma Mater raise
 Voices filled with love and praise.
 Our covenant with her shall be Undying loyalty.
 Proudly wearing red and gold,
 Her sons and daughters shall uphold
 Andrean's fame,
 Her glorious name,
 Her honor ever proclaim.*

The Most Reverend Andrew G. Grutka, D.D.
Bishop of Gary

Andrean High School, located at 5959 Broadway, is a modern structure built on 30 acres. Approximately 1600 students attend Andrean, which is a co-institutional school. The Basilian Fathers instruct the boys, and the Sisters of Saints Cyril and Methodius teach the girls. Father John Burke, principal, is assisted by Father Robert O'Halloran, vice-principal for boys, and Sister Rose Mary, vice-principal for girls.

The word "Andrean" is formed from the name of Saint Andrew, the patron saint of Bishop Grutka.

A dream in 1956, a reality in 1959, and a thriving Catholic high school in 1965, Andrean can look towards an ever-increasing and vital role in the life of the community.

Christ is my Teacher

" . . . if you have kept Christ as your teacher and loyalty to Him has consumed your energy, Andrean will be proud of you . . . "

The evening tranquility is a sharp contrast to the daytime activity.

Some people's opinion: make it to 3000 this day.

Jerry Levens and Mr. Burke exchange small talk.

There's a rush to get to The Wheel after a game.

Art classes develop students' creative abilities.

Sr. Rose Mary and Bishop Grutka discuss the performance of "My Fair Lady".

Fr. O'Halloran celebrates Mass on First Friday.

Receiving Communion is one of the many religious services offered at our school.

Literary values are established in the English Seminar class.

Students find the library a quiet place in which to study.

Bill Matunas waits on a customer in the bookstore.

Girls learned the advantages of being a hairdresser at "College Night" on January 7.

Students find a chance for a bit of socializing before the noon bell.

Elaine Stazinski and Sharon Huber model their own creations at the style show.

Mr. Steiner is a proud dad at "Daddy Date Nite". Mary was named Andrean's Betty Crocker Homeemaker of Tomorrow and was also one of the state finalists.

The band practices for one of its many appearances.

Let's pause for a moment

Nick Schiralli: finds a quiet moment.

Bill Bailey wonders about the outcome of the game.

Coaches Nick Crivenden and Ray Lindstrom dismayed at ref's call

Doug Hand reflects on the success of the parade.

Tim Maloney in a dreamy mood

Frs. McKinnon and Moffatt enjoy the action at a basketball game.

Mike Scelsi eagerly hunts for his shoes after a sock hop.

The smiling face of charity

An informal Student Council meeting

Rich Gundy shows how he won his silver copy of "Christmas Together".

Mr. Velasco directs the band during the recording of the band-choral album.

Do you think this will be the Decussata cover design?

Susie Smith offers Carolyn and Mrs. Chale tempting cookies at the FHA Mother-Daughter Tea.

Nick Schiralli leads a discussion at the Student Council Leadership Day.

Ron and Don Nagdeman surprise Fr. Moffatt with a birthday cake during choral class.

Norm Miller and Bob Povlock discover the "real" Santa (Noel Jocus) at the Christmas Assembly.

Sr. Jeanne connects with one at Field Day.

The queen and her court relax after the tension of homecoming.

Wally Alvarez pins a ribbon for musical talent on Joanne Warde

Fr. Solm receives the Catholic Metropolitan Conference trophy from Mr. Niemiera. Looking on are Rev. Sullivan, Fr. Burke, and Rev. Garrity.

Coach Lincoln accepts the Catholic Metropolitan Conference trophy from Fr. Burke.

Coach Stram presents Bob Kelley with an autographed football at the Athletic Banquet.

"Get your ice-cold frogs here," says John Konrady.

For the art class, Jim ?

FACULTY

Voices filled with love and praise. . . .

Principal

REVEREND JOHN A. BURKE, C.S.B.

My dear Seniors,

I suppose you have seen it a thousand times since you first came to Andrean, embroidered on uniforms, stenciled on sweat shirts, blazoned on the stage, printed on football programs. Almost anywhere you look it is there -- "Magister Meus Christus" -- "Christ My Teacher", the motto of our school. It is a short motto but, in its brevity, it contains a limitless wealth of meaning, the entire philosophy of Andrean, the reason for its existence, the only truly successful story of your own lives.

On graduation day you will see it again; this time engraved on your diploma. Just as it was the first introduction you received to Andrean as freshmen, it will be the last word of advice we give you as you leave. It will be our prayer that day that this motto of your Alma Mater will forever remain the driving force of your entire future.

In the years to come you may be laurel-crowned for your achievements in varied fields. You may become successful lawyers or business men, eminent physicians or teachers, lauded scientists or engineers. Along many paths you may carve your names in the granite of the world's accomplishments.

But, if, in the thrill of your success, any one of you forget . . . forget that in your formative years you chose Christ as the Teacher of the values of life, then Andrean, your Alma Mater, will be grief-stricken over the form of a prodigal child.

If, on the other hand, you never hear the applause of the crowd, you see your mark on the world apparently lost like the path of a ship on the ocean, but if you have kept Christ as your teacher and loyalty to Him has consumed your energy, Andrean will be proud of you and she will secretly hope that she has played some small part in the making of a successful graduate.

1964 Homecoming Queen

Under the direction of Tom Fitzgerald, Homecoming 1964, ran more smoothly than ever. One week before the appointed day the five finalists for the queen competition were named: Marilyn Lebioda, Pat Markey, Tonia Szymanski, Harriet Witham, and Mitzie Vonderhaar. Preparations were made for escorts, cars, and the A-shaped float which was to be the center of the parade--that unforgettable, eight block long caravan of honking, crepe-paper draped cars.

The varsity eleven were once more to be victorious, this time against Maryville Academy, and the final score was 59 to 0! They had piled up 26 points by half-time, when the traditional ceremonies took place.

To an enthusiastic, screaming crowd of students, faculty, and returning alumni, Tom Kotulak announced Mitzie Vonderhaar as Andrean's 1964 Homecoming Queen. Kathy Haberkorn, last year's choice, crowned our new Queen and presented her with one dozen long-stemmed gold roses--and this climaxed Homecoming Activities.

Later that evening, Oscar and the Majestics played for the dance during which the Queen, her court, and their escorts were formally presented to the school.

The sock-hop ended; all that remained of Homecoming 1964 were the remnants of those yellow mums, a few torn pieces of crepe paper, and the memories that will go on and on.

Senior Class honored to have two South American students

Since the first Senior Class in 1959, Andrean has been host to foreign exchange students. This year our school was fortunate, for we received two such students, both from South America.

Maria Isavel Rueda from Bogota, Columbia, and Maximo Bosch from Puente Alto, Chile, came to Andrean under the National Catholic Welfare Conference. Under this organization students are chosen on the basis of either their past grade record or an achievement test to study at selected high schools in the United States for one year. Both students took regular Senior courses, and graduated with the class of 1965.

Under the same plan, Max and Maria lived with American families who volunteered their homes for this purpose. Maria stayed with Mr. and Mrs. Dale Elsner, and Max with Mr. and Mrs. Michael Hepner.

Max and Maria became whole-hearted Andreanites, attending games, dances, and other school activities. They learned exactly what it is like to be a teen-ager in a typical American high school. Knowledge is a two-way street, however; so they imparted to us a deeper understanding of the people of South America.

In this unique way--through actual experience--we learned an invaluable lesson which will stay clearly imprinted in our minds for years to come: people, no matter where they live, or what language they speak, are all the same.

Maria enjoys the homecoming ceremonies with Mrs. Elsner and her daughter Mary.

Max accompanies Maria to their first formal dance as Andean seniors.

Max and Maria speak at a meeting of the Spanish Club on life in their respective countries.

Maria spends a few hours visiting with her uncle, an exchange student at Wayne University in Detroit.

Candlelighting ceremony

With the reception of new members in December, the Archbishop Flahiff Chapter of the National Honor Society numbered seventy members from the Junior and Senior classes. This organization, which honors those students who have exhibited the qualities of Character, Leadership, Scholarship, and Service, is moderated by Andrean's vice-principals, Sister Rose Mary and Father Robert O'Halloran. A service, as well as an honorary association, the National Honor Society strives to underscore the cultural aspects of Andrean activities. A Christmas pageant at the annual Christmas assembly and sponsorship of Fine Arts Day highlighted the Society's 64-65 year.

Novice librarians learn necessity of order

Andrean library assistants spend at least one hour per week, either after school, or during a free period, checking out books, filing cards, and performing the various other duties concerned with the efficient operation of a library.

Library assistants Ann Sue Levenda, Margaret Monahan, and Chris Miller devote one hour each day to the library.

Sodality encourages greater spiritual growth

Linda Rasmussen, President; Andrea Zelinka, Secretary; and Marie Boric, Vice-President of the Sodality arrange the Christmas manger scene.

The Our Lady of Good Counsel Sodality, under the direction of Father Abend and Sister Cyrilline, undertakes to do good for others. The members sponsor a food drive at Thanksgiving, visit the old folks' home at Christmas, and periodically entertain orphaned children with games, skits, and toys.

In keeping with the spirit of the organization, sodalists make periodic visits to the chapel.

. . . Daddy-Date Night

Betty Kovalcik and her father

The Future Homemakers of America exist to help young women improve their personal, family, and community life. Each year, Andrean's chapter sponsors a Mother-Daughter Tea and a Daddy-Date Night. The latter has been so successful that this year two separate nights were set aside for the dads.

The dads found the peanut rolling contest a little different.

We would like to express our gratitude, first of all, to Father Smith, our moderator, for his patience in enduring all the whims of the editors, especially their ideas on running titles. Without your guiding hand, Father, this yearbook would not have been possible.

Also, we wish to extend a special note of thanks to our staff, for the many and long hours of work (and fun) they put in during the past six months, especially those last few frantic and hectic days before the deadline.

To Sue Schenher and John Keilman on activities, without your antics, working on the annual would never have had those merry moments.

We want to say to Mary Romanyak and Vince Bobin on sports, we really appreciated your novel ideas about layouts!

On underclass pictures, were Maureen Monroe, Dave Vorwald, Carla Labanowski, Fred Grabek, and Bill Vahary. Maureen, your sense of humor carried us through thick and thin. To you, we also owe the running titles for underclass pictures.

We can credit Diane Ziel and Shirley Mayer with the informal look the senior picture section sports. Also due to Jane Syrk and Dave Mastly, the faculty section provides a different appearance from the past two years.

To Mary Jane Reilly, Mary Kalousek, and Wayne Henderlong, we owe the accuracy of the senior directory. Thanks to Marilyn Lebiada, Kathy O'Malley and Wally Alvarez for their efforts in acquiring the patrons we have this year.

To our nimble-fingered typists, Cindy Jackson and Noel Jocus, a warm "thank-you".

Responsible for a large number of the photos we used, was Frank McLaren. We want to express a special gratefulness for his endurance in taking the senior prom pictures. Thanks to John Mills, too, for his help in taking photographs.

To Jeanne Ambre, we owe the beautiful art work throughout these pages.

To Mr. Robert Lewis, Sterling-Coner photographer, and Mr. Frank Mraz, photographer, our deepest appreciation for the many fine quality pictures which compose this book.

Choosing a theme for the annual, was not an easy task. As seniors, we felt, that by using our "Alma Mater" we could most clearly convey our thoughts and sentiments about our school, our teachers, and our classmates.

This year we added a special section, the Senior Section, for the Class of '65, because we wished to give them something extra, something personal.

We present this third edition of the Decussata, '64-65, to you, the students, with the hope that in years to come, when you turn these pages, the memories of your high school days will be recaptured.

Her honor ever proclaim.

the 1990s, the number of people in the UK who are aged 65 and over has increased from 10.5 million to 12.5 million, and the number of people aged 75 and over has increased from 4.5 million to 6.5 million (Office of National Statistics 2000).

There is a growing awareness of the need to address the needs of older people in the community. The Department of Health (1999) has published a strategy for older people, which sets out a vision for the future of older people's services. The strategy is based on the following principles: older people should be able to live independently in their own homes; older people should be able to access the services they need; and older people should be able to participate in the decisions that affect their lives.

The strategy also sets out a number of key objectives for the future of older people's services. These include: to improve the quality of life of older people; to reduce the inequalities in health and social care between different groups of older people; to ensure that older people are able to access the services they need; and to ensure that older people are able to participate in the decisions that affect their lives.

The strategy is a key document for the development of older people's services in the UK. It sets out a clear vision for the future of older people's services and provides a framework for the development of policies and services to meet the needs of older people in the community.

the 1990s, the number of people in the world who are under 15 years of age has increased from 1.1 billion to 1.5 billion, and the number of people aged 65 and over has increased from 0.2 billion to 0.5 billion (United Nations 1999).

There is a growing awareness of the need to address the needs of the young and the old. The United Nations (1999) has identified the need to address the needs of the young and the old as one of the eight Millennium Development Goals. The United Nations (1999) has also identified the need to address the needs of the young and the old as one of the eight Millennium Development Goals.
